==Naming==

Requested name: Lorne Sully
Requested use of name:
- Street
- Park
- Municipal Facility

Background Information ( Reason for name request): Lorne Sully spent over 20 years in dedicated Urban Design work at the City of Saskatoon. He taught Rural and Urban Design classes seasonal at the U of S and proctored planning professional exams. He passed away in 2017, at the age of 70.

If you have submitted a person's name, please provide a short biography (Given name, date of birth, place of birth, contributions, awards, achievements or other related information):

Lorne Arthur Sully was born in 1947 in Biggar SK. Educated at the U of S as a geography, rural and urban design student. He began his career in consulting, worked for Indian Affairs and later the City. He was instrumental in the development of Urban Reserves and a great ally to the Indigenous Community. He has contributed to Urban Design internationally and has an honorary doctorate from the University of Chiapas, Mx.

Lorne was passionate about the City of Saskatoon and a champion of many initiatives and design achievements during the two decades he led the Planning Department. His family would appreciate the naming of a street, park or centre after Lorne, he is truly deserving. We lost him much too soon.
