Subject Conversion Therapy Law

Meeting (if known) Jan 18 Governance and Priorities Committee Meeting

Comments

I am writing to express my opposition of a law that would prohibit “conversion therapy” in regards to receiving counsel or advice from wherever, whomever we want. I strongly believe that all should have access to counsel/support options that uphold one’s personal belief systems, if so desired. This law appears to only support a one choice option, denying some the right to change their own pathway, or making it difficult to do so. We should be able to seek, give, and receive advice on all life decisions freely and without penalty; in this case, desiring help for gender identity, or wanting support to live a heterosexual lifestyle. Thank you for your consideration.
