Hi,

I wish to register my opposition to the law which would make conversion therapy a prohibited business in Saskatoon. Why am I opposed to this law? Simply because it imposes a single ideology of how to treat youth/individuals who are struggling with gender identity. Such ideology as is being pushed is not supported by science as being in the best interest of struggling individuals. This type of difficulty must be navigated with advice and input from healthcare professionals, parents, and pastors. I think it is premature to pass a law that prohibits alternative methods, especially when such alternative methods have been proven to work.

Thanks,

Murray
