Re: Board Resignations and Appointments – Downtown Saskatoon BID

Two long-time board members, Christopher Ryder, and John Williams announced their intention to resign effective January 12, 2021. The Board would like to acknowledge and thank Mr. Ryder for serving on the Board for over 8 years, and Mr. Williams for his contributions since 2016.

Please be advised that the Board of Management for Downtown Saskatoon passed a motion at its February 9, 2021 Board Meeting to approve the appointment of the following people to replace the positions vacated: Ashala Naidu, a lawyer and owner of Naidu Legal, Sara Wheelwright, founder/owner of Trusted Marketing Services, and Blair Chapman, Campus Director, and owner of Saskatoon Business College.

All new board representatives meet the criteria for membership to the Board as outlined in Bylaw 6710 and the Board requests City Council confirm the appointments. Once City Council approves the appointments, the Board of Management will be comprised of eleven representatives:

Chris Beavis, Chair, Hotel Senator
Doug Fast, Fast Consulting

Mark Wolff, myComply
Blair Chapman, Saskatoon Business College
Sara Wheelwright, Trusted Marketing Services
