I don't know Councillor Darren Hill. My comments are based on an article from 650 CKOM which was sent to me as a part of the SREDA newsletter.

Under the circumstances, Councillor Darren Hill should be given some latitude. If the worst thing he is guilty of is missing a deadline, then there should be several more resignations forthcoming. It strikes me as odd that there may be individuals deciding his fate who have done the same thing.

If nothing else, I think we can agree that the pandemic has caused a great deal of disruption to everyone, and especially those who have suffered through the disease.

Respectfully,

George Charpentier
