As a board member of Saskatoon Cycles, will speak to the Victoria Ave project and answer any questions council may have. Please see attached letter. Saskatoon Cycles represents safe, usable, all ages cycling in Saskatoon, providing information and support for active transportation and quality of life in the city. Our membership engagement is about 2200 people each month.

Note: I have other appts and meetings today. If I can be notified (text or call to cell phone contact number above) when this item is coming forward, would be grateful.
