Dear Council/Committees,

With reference to below news, I am curious that religious activities should be at limited covered area. Starting an open spot (Shamshan Ghat) would not be a good idea. I have not seen a single open air (uncontrolled) religious facility in Saskatchewan yet.

Secondly environment pollution is serious concern in my point of view, in sub-continent India half cremated bodies are being thrown in rivers which is causing lots of issues in neighborhoods. If want to designate any spot for this matter please find a place on down stream out of Saskatoon City.

With regards

Guftar
