Re: Letter of Support for Motion of Councillor D. Kirton
Renaming of John A. Macdonald Road (CK 6310-1)

As a community leader responsible in part for community health, I would like to add my voice as support for the Saskatoon Tribal Council's request to rename John A. Macdonald Road.

Our Police Service is committed to reconciliation. I feel that constructive action such as this is aligned with our priorities and will assist in addressing legacies that have been harmful for our Indigenous employees, citizens and families. It is also an opportunity for peaceful public discussion about truth and reconciliation, adding even more value to this act. The Saskatoon Police Service continues on its path of growth as well, but we still celebrate as community members and servants any step taken that improves the health of our community.

Our City will be safest and healthiest when historic trauma is acknowledged and every citizen feels equally valued.

Respectfully submitted,

Troy Cooper, M.O.M. MBA
Chief of Police
