Comments

I support the motion to name change John A MacDonald Road. This man does not deserve any recognition due to his part he took in supporting residential schools and the genocide of first nation peoples in this country. He was a public figure with a lot of influence over Canadian citizens. His words may still linger in past generations but with this name change, we can create a new history and dialog with our younger generations that his words and view point are NOT OK and we will NOT tolerate it again.
