

Mayor Charlie Clark, Councillors Cynthia Black, Troy Davies, Randy Donauer, Bev Dubois, Sarina Gersher, Hilary Gough, Warren Hill, Zach Jeffries, David Kinton, Mairin Louwen:

I have written several letters to our Mayor and councillor for Ward 3, expressing my horror and dismay regarding the proposed name change of my street, John A. Macdonald Road.

Our family home was built here and I have paid taxes on same for 45 years. All of us taxpayers on this street should have entitled us to have a say about a name change. What is worse, we were kept in the dark all the time the big discussions were taking place. I call that sneaky and conniving.

What is even more alarming is that you would even consider renaming our streets, reconciliation. That is like rubbing our nose in something we had nothing to do with.

Why do we, as citizens of this day, have to answer for what Parliament of a hundred years ago decided to do to educate the people.

I sympathize with the children who were taken from their homes and became victims of the Catholic and other churches.

"We are truly sorry" is an apology that should suffice.

many Saskatoon residents are disagreeing with the decision City Council is taking in this matter.
