CARRIED UNANIMOUSLY (11 to 0)

5. PUBLIC ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

5.1 In Remembrance of Devon Stein [File No. CK.150-1]

Mayor Clark provided condolences on behalf of City Council to the family and colleagues of the late Devon Stein who recently passed away. Devon was a City of Saskatoon employee in the IT Department. A moment of silence in remembrance was held.

5.2 Mayor Clark - Recognition and Remembrance - Residential School Victims [File No. CK. 150-1]

Mayor Clark recognized the recent findings of the 751 unmarked graves that were discovered at the Cowessess Marieval residential school and expressed condolences to those affected on behalf of City Council. A moment of silence was held.

5.3 Mayor C. Clark - Recent Attack on Muslim Community Member [File No. CK. 150-1]

Mayor Clark acknowledged the recent targeted attack on Muhammad Kashif noting that this is a time for the community to stand together and work against islamophobia and all forms of racism and discrimination.

6. UNFINISHED BUSINESS

6.1 The Knox United Church Heritage Designation Amendment Bylaw, 2021 [File No. CK 710-49]

Report of the City Clerk:

"At the Public Hearing meeting held on February 22, 2021, City Council resolved:

1. That permission be granted to introduce Bylaw No. 9737, The Knox United Church Heritage Designation Amendment Bylaw, 2021, and give same its first reading;
2. That the submitted report and correspondence be received;
3. That the hearing be closed;
4. That the amendment of the heritage designation bylaw for 838 Spadina Crescent East be referred to the Municipal Heritage Review Board to be reviewed pursuant to Sections 14 and 15 of The Heritage Property Act.

With respect to the above, attached is a communication dated June 6, 2021 from the Review Board Secretary, Saskatchewan Heritage Foundation Review Board, providing the Committee's recommendation for the referenced property as per Sections 14 and 15 of The Heritage Property Act. The Review Board recommends approval of the change in legal land description to reflect a subdivision of the property as described. Respectfully the Review Board notes that significant opposition was shown for the amendment based on the impact to the urban environment of the proposed development and that further community consultation be considered to review the impact to the pedestrian realm and impact to connection, access and use of the Knox site as part of future design considerations.

Also provided:

- Public Resolution Excerpt from the Minutes of the Public Hearing meeting of City Council held on February 22, 2021 (the communications referenced therein can be found linked to the meeting site here)
- Bylaw No. 9737, The Knox United Church Heritage Designation Amendment Bylaw, 2021. (First reading February 22, 2021)

The report of the Saskatchewan Heritage Review and Appeals Committee is non-binding. As provided in Section 16 of The Heritage Property Act, on consideration of the report, City Council may:

1. pass the bylaw notwithstanding the objection: or
2. consent to the objection and withdraw or modify the proposed bylaw."

The following letters were provided:

- Requesting to Speak
 - Bertrand Bartake, Kindrachuk Agrey Architecture, dated June 25, 2021;
 - Peggy Sargeant, Saskatoon Heritage Society, dated June 28, 2021;
- Submitting Comments
 - Reverend Colin Clay, dated June 27, 2021;
 - Patricia Pavey, dated June 27, 2021;
 - Ross Hinthier, dated June 27, 2021;
 - Norma Klassen, dated June 28, 2021;
- Available to Respond to Questions
 - Art Postle, Knox United Church Board of Directors, dated June 28, 2021.

Director of Planning and Development Anderson provided background information and reviewed the report of the Heritage Review Board indicating that the Board is recommending approval of the change in the legal land description to reflect the subdivision of the property as described. She noted that City Council may pass the bylaw or consent to withdraw or modify the proposed bylaw.

City Council heard from the following speakers:

- Bertrand Bartake, Kindrachuk Agrey Architecture
- Peggy Sargeant, Saskatoon Heritage Society

City Solicitor Yelland indicated that Council may only complete second reading of the Bylaw at this meeting as a proper legal land description is required from ISC. Once received, the Bylaw would then be brought back to a future meeting to complete third reading.

Moved By: Councillor Donauer

Seconded By: Councillor Kirton

That Bylaw No. 9737, The Knox United Church Heritage Designation Amendment Bylaw, 2021, now be read a SECOND time.

In Favour: (11): Mayor C. Clark, Councillor Block, Councillor Davies, Councillor Donauer, Councillor Dubois, Councillor Gersher, Councillor Gough, Councillor Hill, Councillor Jeffries, Councillor Kirton, and Councillor Loewen

CARRIED UNANIMOUSLY (11 to 0)

7. QUESTION PERIOD

7.1 Councillor T. Davies - Safety Concerns - Northmile Pub - Massey Place [File No. CK. 5000-1]

Councillor Davies indicated that he has received numerous concerns with respect to the recent shooting at the Northmile Pub across the street from Vincent Massey School. He asked what actions the City can take to address the safety concerns around the location of this business.

A/General Manager, Community Services Richter provided background information with respect to the business permit and permitted land use.

7.2 Councillor R. Donauer - Dandelion Control in City Parks and Public Spaces [File No. CK. 4200-2]

Councillor Donauer asked how the City manages dandelions in parks and public areas if the City is pursuing a natural treatment.

Director of Parks Crilly provided information with respect to the approach the City has to prevent weed invasion. He also provided an update with respect to the research being done with Agriculture Canada around biological pesticides.

7.3 Councillor R. Donauer - Reassessment and Property Taxes - Mitigating Impacts - Commercial Properties [File No. CK. 1616-1 x1915-1]

Councillor Donauer indicated that commercial properties in the north end have experienced significant challenges with respect to reassessment, with one property that has had taxes doubled as a result. He asked if there are any options for Council to mitigate the impacts of reassessment.

Chief Financial Officer Tarasoff provided background information regarding the decision on the phase-in plan (property tax deferral plan). In response to a follow-up question, he confirmed that the appeal period for reassessment cannot be extended.

7.4 Councillor H. Gough - Property Tax Deferral Program - Commercial Properties [File No. CK. 1920-1]

Councillor Gough indicated that commercial property owners are facing reassessment outside of the average 8% in the commercial class and with the COVID 19 strain, businesses are facing challenges. She asked how the deferral for two years for this tax application from this reassessment cycle was arrived at and how that compares to best practices and what City Council has directed in past.

Chief Financial Officer Tarasoff explained the process and provided information on past reporting. In response to a follow up question from Councillor Gough with respect to owners that require more time to pay their property taxes, he explained the process for payment arrears.

7.5 Councillor M. Loewen - Implications of the Reopen Plan for Public Services and Employees [File No. CK. 270-7]

Councillor Loewen requested an update regarding the implications of the reopening for public services and employees, specifically around the July 11 lifting of mask orders and other.

City Manager Jorgenson indicated that the City will be closely following provincial guidelines with respect to lifting restrictions. In response to a follow-up question from Councillor Loewen with respect services to Leisure Centres, pools, and transit around communications to the public on policy changes, City Manager Jorgenson indicated that Communications will be involved with messaging using PSAs, social media, etc. City Clerk Tittmore added that with respect to the unknowns around occupational health and safety guidelines as it relates to masking, the City is expecting to receive clarity on that by the end of the month. An update report is anticipated at the Governance and Priorities Committee in July.

7.6 Councillor B. Dubois - Foxtail Control [File No. CK. 4200-2]

Councillor Dubois asked for an update on Foxtail removal and what the process is.

Director of Parks Crilly provided background information regarding reporting on weed management strategies and that warning signage has been implemented in parks. In a follow-up question from Councillor Dubois around responsibility for removal of Foxtail, he indicated the City receives the complaints and follows up with the landowner.

7.7 Councillor D. Kirton - Collection of Property Taxes [File No. CK. 1920-3]

Councillor Kirton indicated he reviewed the process for collection of property taxes in arrears and asked if a property owner can provide payment during this process.

Chief Financial Officer Tarasoff confirmed that payments can be made at any time throughout the process and any penalties are adjusted accordingly.
