I am writing in regards to the COVID-19 measures being discussed at Monday's council meeting. I would like to let council know I am in favour of as strict of measures as possible, including mandatory masks everywhere. Further, I am a City employee, and I support mandatory vaccinations for all City employees. I have a child too young to be vaccinated - every day I go to work I put them at risk - as well as the vaccinated members of my family, because of my unvaccinated co-workers. In no other situation would the City let workers continually and knowingly put others workers at risk.

The anti-maskers and anti-vaxxers can be loud, but they are in the minority. Please do the right thing and adopt strict measures to combat COVID-19.

Thanks,

Andrew Johnson
