Letter to City Council and Mayor,

Dear City Council and Mayor Charlie Clark,

I like many other Saskatoon citizens was upset by the recent flagrant disregard by the Provincial Government to the request from Saskatoon City Council to put controls over the amount of people who can gather during the Thanksgiving time.

We all know that people are gathering in ways that could become COVID 19 hotspots. What the Saskatoon City Council and Mayor were recommending was simply a way to limit the COVID 19 spread. The Moe government abruptly dismissed this message.

We are all witnessing the disastrous results of COVID out of control. I think many citizens are supportive of Council and Mayor continuing a strong and positive position of the City to implement gathering restrictions within city limits.

An outcome of COVID in Saskatchewan should be a serious appraisal of the provincial power to override proposals from other levels of governance, and groups who represent the public health sector in their recommendations to save lives.

Premier Moe had shown his inability and negligence to act for the best protection of citizens of Saskatoon and Saskatchewan.

Thank you.

Don Kossick
