I oppose this bylaw as there are many moving parts to this virus and it's intervention. We cannot create a segregated and divided city to control COVID.

There are rights being violated and gross negligence in regards to the people "in power". Transparency is lacking and the right to choose is being ignored.

Let's address the actual issues such as Healthcare shortages, alternative strategies as well as inoculations (a choice for the people, not coercion) and perhaps transparency in the information circulated by media rather than imprisoning people to their homes and bankrupting the local economy.

There are many other ways to solve this issue than locking people indoors and forcing them to lose their jobs. It's your job to look at these options since the people around you are speaking loudly and clearly to your ridiculous proposed bylaw. You cannot isolate people for nearly 2 years and not come up with something more progressive than lockdowns, loss of jobs for one option of prevention and bullying of business owners to comply with a segregated society. Perhaps you as city councilors and as mayor, are not directly responsible for all of the decision making Canada wide, but you can choose to cooperate in the same useless fashion, creating this bylaw for the people in Saskatoon. You will soon have the equivalent of caged animals very shortly.
