I am writing because I am sincerely concerned about this new bilaw being proposed. I have lived here my whole life and I love it here. It is a beautiful, quiet place to live and while not perfect, it has represented a more neighborly attitude. I could always look a stranger in the eye and say hello to them.

However the messaging from corporate media and our government from all levels has been appalling during this pandemic. We need strong leadership right now who tries to calm the situation down, think rationally and add common sense. We need a government that takes in all the information, listens to both sides of the argument to make the best decision going forward. There is nothing but a fear driven narrative that has to stop.

This bilaw proposal is just another step in trying to pit neighbor against neighbor. Here in Saskatchewan we look out for one another. We do not snitch on one another.

I really hope you reconsider this proposal, add calm to this situation rather than accelerating fear and anxiety. Thank you.
