As a new Saskatoon resident, I am concerned about city council proposing gathering limits on the people of this city. If these restrictions are a means of slowing the spread of Covid-19, I would request you site the studies that prove this idea.

It seems as if the proposed changes do little to address the actual impact of Covid-19. They will only succeed in alienating the mayor and council ever more so from the citizens of Saskatoon, We feel very strongly that we have done all we've been asked to thus far and as a reward, instead of praising our efforts, we are punished with limited gatherings!
