Subject Cities Own Covid 19 Gathering Limit Bylaw

Meeting (if known) Friday, October 29

Comments

Good morning,

I will be watching remotely and do not wish to speak to council, rather just voice my concern.

I am writing in regard to the City of Saskatoon creating their own Covid 19 gathering limit bylaw. This is beyond disturbing that Mayor Clark and council are taking it upon themselves to create personal household gathering limits and are choosing to use tax payer money to enforce neighborhood tattle tales and snitches with the possibility of actually using this as a revenue source. It is more than your authority allows to enact public health orders in peoples personal homes. You have chosen to created the divide and segregation within your City facilities and I think you have already established enough discrimination and hate throughout the City of Saskatoon residents.
