His Worship Charlie Clarke & Council

RE: Coming Home – MMIWG2S

Dear Worship Clarke and Council,

I am writing today to extend my sincere support for the “Coming Home” Report recommendations. As an Indigenous woman and the MN-S Western Region 2A Regional Director, I would like to commend you and City Council for the outstanding efforts and collaboration towards the City’s response to the MMIWG2S National Inquiry’s Calls to Action.

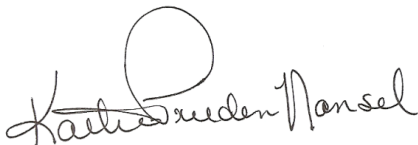

The City of Saskatoon has taken courageous steps towards – “Active” Reconciliation, working with community to come together in a creative way to address the safety of MMIWG2S but also all citizens of Saskatoon. The City of Saskatoon will be Leaders in unified efforts to ensure our Indigenous women, girls and 2S are safe, and that then all citizens will be safe.

The City’s team have brought together many many strengths, wisdom and knowledge of Elders and Matriarchs, families of the Missing and Murdered, community who has been diligent in efforts to bring awareness and change.

“Listen to the Aunties” is truly a community driven approach. I truly believe that establishing the process for a an Office of the Representation of the Matriarchs will help not just Indigenous Women, Girls and 2 Spirit, but will help all citizens feel part of something that brings effective changes, to our systems, ways of thinking and most importantly too all who live and thrive in Saskatoon.

I am proud of the initial you have shown Worship Clarke and Council, through creating safe a space to talk, discuss, and take risks, you have all shown the true meaning of Reconciliation. You have truly started things in a good way.

Sincerely,

Kathie Pruden Nansel – MN-S – WR2A
MN-S – Minister of Child and Family
