Please, PLEASE, keep masks mandatory on Saskatoon Transit. It is already SO frustrating seeing people completely disregard the rules by riding the bus with no mask or their mask resting on their chins. I get infuriated daily. DAILY. I work full time, downtown, and use transit every single day to get to and from work. The fact that people are not refused service for blatantly breaking this MANDATORY enactment is not only pathetic and laughable, but it's also clear representation of this council's absolute egregious handling of the pandemic. People don't smoke on the bus as it is not allowed, it's forbidden. How is not wearing a mask any different? I have a newborn grandchild that I haven't been able to meet, as well as an aging parent that I haven't seen in person, for months. Keep the masks mandatory, and, ENFORCE it. I'm begging you.
