🌻 Dear Friend and Community Representative,

I am writing to you with care and compassion imagining your care and compassion harmonizing with the disaster that my neighborhood, in your constituency and ward is in.

I live on Treaty 6 Territory, Traditional homeland of Cree, Metis and many First Nations here in Saskatoon, Saskatchewan, Canada here at Sturby Place.

I and my neighbors are coping with the results of sewer backup to our homes due to the flash storm on Monday. Some have no insurance. Some have language barriers. Some have low or no income. Some have low or no personal support.

I invite you to my home with immediacy. I invite you to observe me and my neighbors' experience of disaster and help remove the systemic claims of ignorance to our class circumstance right in your city/ward/constituency/community.

I invite you to take the vote and employment position you received that gave you your position and share the joy of that sense of resource predictability through live connection with me and my neighborhood-your neighborhood.

Would you be willing to come to my home at [REDACTED] Sturby Place to offer witnessing, sustainable support, care and compassion for this disaster, that disproportionately impacts this low income, Bipoc, single mother weighted community with immediacy?

Knock on my door any time. Call [REDACTED] anytime.

🌻 With Warmth, Exhaustion and Grief,
Loretta Iris
