Comments:

I would like to speak in defence of the City's standing policy on gender-inclusiveness regarding municipal facilities. I believe that a brief explanation into the history of such inclusive policies, along with an examination of the misconceived arguments against them, would prove that they are safe and effective in respecting human rights. I would also like to touch on the nature of pushbacks against these policies, the factions driving them, and their underlying goals. Upon request, I can also offer to clarify how such incidents like the one we experienced are falsely reported and weaponised.

Thank you for your consideration.
