

2023 Property Tax Levy and BID Levy

ISSUE

City Council approval for the 2023 Property Tax Bylaws and Business Improvement Districts (BIDs) Levy Bylaw is required in order to issue Property Tax Notices in May 2023.

RECOMMENDATION

1. That Bylaw No. 9888, The Saskatoon Property Tax Bylaw, 2023 be considered;
2. That Bylaw No. 9889, The School Division Property Tax Bylaw, 2023 be considered; and
3. That Bylaw No. 9887, The Business Improvement District Levy Bylaw, 2023 be considered.

BACKGROUND

Each year in accordance with The Cities Act, City Council approves the property tax bylaws which authorize the Administration to issue the annual tax notices to all taxable properties. Bylaws are prepared to include the tax rates sufficient to raise the amount of funds as approved in the budget and include the decisions of City Council regarding the City of Saskatoon's (City) municipal tax policy and appeal loss contingencies.

DISCUSSION/ANALYSIS

The Saskatoon Property Tax Bylaw

The 2023 municipal and library tax rates in Bylaw No. 9816, The Saskatoon Property Tax Bylaw, 2023 (Appendix 1) include previous City Council decisions regarding budget requirements and tax policy. Based on these decisions, the uniform mill rate sufficient to raise the required tax revenue for the City is 8.5034 mills and the library mill rate required is 0.8907 mills. These prior City Council decisions are as follows:

- A municipal budget increase of 3.93% and a library budget increase of 5.67%, approved at City Council's Business Plan and Budget Review meeting on November 28, 2022.
- For this reassessment cycle (2021-2024), City Council approved the recommendation to maintain the existing 1.59 tax ratio on March 22, 2021. After consideration of the factors related to reassessment, continuation of the existing 1.59 tax ratio for 2023 results in a 0.423% shift from residential to commercial properties.
- The recommendation that a $1,500,000 appeal loss contingency for the commercial and industrial property class be added to the property tax levy for 2023 was preliminarily approved by the Standing Policy Committee on Finance on April 5, 2023 and recommended for approval to City Council. These contingency amounts are included in the uniform mill rate but are redistributed through the mill rate factors which ensures the contingency levy is applied to the appropriate property subclasses.

School Division Property Tax Bylaw

The City is responsible to bill and collect education property tax on behalf of the school boards. The City does not keep the education property tax portion for the provision of civic services. The education mill rates are set by the Province of Saskatchewan (Province) which are included in Bylaw No. 9817, The School Division Property Tax Bylaw, 2023 (Appendix 2). On March 22, 2023, the Province announced there would be no change to the education mill rates for the residential, commercial, industrial, resource and agricultural property classes. The Saskatoon Separate School Division sets its own mill rates and has adopted the provincial rates.

Business Improvement Districts (BIDs) Levy Bylaw

The BIDs' budget requirements determine the levy amount to be charged to commercial properties within the respective BID areas. At its meeting on February 22, 2023, City Council approved the 2023 budget submissions for all five BIDs. The rates sufficient to raise the budget requirements are included in Bylaw No. 9815, The Business Improvement Districts Levy Bylaw, 2023 (Appendix 3).

2022 Typical Single-Family Home Property Tax Increase

A typical single-family home with an assessed value of $344,000 will see an increase in total property tax (municipal, library and education) of $99.62 or 2.89% from 2022 to 2023, as shown in the following table.
