Comments:

Having heard about the proposed downtown arena/event centre, I think it's. GREAT idea. Saskatoon has such a rich history when it comes to performing arts, from Joni Mitchell to Wide Mouth Mason, Factor Chandelier and Reignwolf, and dozens of others, our music is what makes us SHINE. I would put our music scene up against any city in the country, because purely based on productivity and potential for growth, we are second to few. I know there are many naysayers who think it's a poor decision, but please pay them no heed. Music literally saved my life. As a recovering addict who spent decades living on the edge as a byproduct of childhood trauma, depression, and the grief of friendships and family members lost, I owe my recovery to music and the artistic community in Saskatoon. I'm over 3 years clear of self destructive patterns of abuse and I would have never made it without the Saskatoon music scene. I assure you I am not alone in that sentiment. Having a facility located more centrally will be a great thing for patrons and core-businesses alike. An overhaul of public transit would also be a great thing, but that can be looked at another time. I thank you for your time and consideration. Thank you for all the good work you do, Saskatoon is a unique city and while it has problems, it very much feels like things are moving in a more positive direction. God bless, your friend til the end, Loren M. McDougall.
