Dear Mayor and Council,

In regards to the recent announcement by CFO Cale Hack that the COS is facing budget shortfalls of 75 million over the next two years.

The leadership of this City always seems to have ideas, millions of them and they cost a lot money. I have an idea, how about we focus on what we have and not what we want!. I continually watch as what we have gets neglected as we pursue new things and ideas that eventually get tossed aside wasting money or just a future liability we can't afford.

In typical knee jerk fashion basic services are cut or reserve funds are depleted to cover the mistakes.

This is Saskatoon not Vancouver or Edmonton, stop trying to be something we're not and focus on what we have and who we are not who we want to be!

I like Saskatoon, but I don't like the direction we've been heading!

Sincerely
Shane Prpich
