

Community Benefit Agreement - Resource List

Title	Organization	Description
Community Benefit Agreements
Community Benefit Agreements: How can construction and infrastructure best create social value for communities?	Buy Social Canada	Provides tools, resources, and further insights into designing, implementing, and succeeding in Community Benefit Agreements & Community Employment Benefits.
Toronto Community Benefits Network	Toronto Community Benefits Network.	The Toronto Community Benefits Network has built a strong community-labour partnership with a support base of workforce development agencies, learning institutions and funders.
Community Benefits Agreements	The Mowat Centre & The Atkinson Foundation.	This report examines the structure of Community Benefits Agreements and the process for developing them in Ontario. It describes leading examples, the current policy landscape, and related strategic considerations.
Community Benefits Agreements: Empowering Communities To Maximize Returns on Public Infrastructure Investments	The Institute of Fiscal Studies and Democracy (IFSD)	This report offers examples and mechanisms to inform and improve approaches to identifying, negotiating, implementing, and monitoring community benefits.
Community Benefits Agreements: Making Development Projects Accountable	Good Jobs First & California Partnership for Working Families	This publication is intended to help community groups learn how CBAs work, and to explain many of the different kinds of benefits for which community groups can negotiate.
Parkdale Community Benefits Framework: Guide for Development without Displacement	Parkdale People's Economy	Provides an example of a framework that provides a guide for public and private sector actors to support community benefits in Parkdale by following the vision of community members.
Social Procurement
Exploring Community Wealth Building Through	Buy Social Canada	This report recaps a five-part knowledge series that examined the Ontario social procurement ecosystem – social enterprises as suppliers, social value purchasers

Social Procurement in Ontario		and the construction sector generating demand, and how community is re-defining wealth and driving social value outcomes.
Social Value Menu: Goods and Services Templates for Implementation	Buy Social Canada	The purpose of this menu is to help you design, evaluate and implement the inclusion of a social value into your procurement process for goods and services.
Social Procurement Program	City of Toronto	The City of Toronto's Social Procurement Program aims to create jobs and drive inclusive economic growth in the city. The program embeds supply chain diversity and workforce development initiatives in the City's procurement processes.
Community Benefit Framework
Community Benefits Framework: Slides	City of Toronto	Slide deck outlining the City of Toronto's Community Benefit Framework.
Community Benefits Framework	City of Toronto	The recommendations in this report support the City of Toronto to maximize the social and economic impacts of community benefits initiatives when it buys, builds, or provides financial incentives for construction or remediation
Community Benefit Agreements Policy	City of Vancouver
Community Benefits Framework for the Golden Mile	Golden Mile Impact Network	The Golden Mile Community Benefits Framework (Framework) is a community-informed response to the anticipated large-scale, transit-oriented development precipitated by the construction of the Eglinton Crosstown Light Rail Transit (LRT).
Social Procurement	City of Calgary	The Social Procurement Strategy (approved as the Benefit Driven Procurement Strategy in 2021) is the procedural document that defines how City Administration performs procurement activities under the Procurement Policy.