Comments:

The planned location for this shelter is inappropriate to the neighbourhood and to those that will need it. As this is not an actual shelter, but a short term site for supervised sobering, it does not serve the community. Those who are dropped at this site will, when released, then be left to wander the residential neighbourhood and local businesses. There are no services for the homeless or addicted in our area. This site should be on 20th street where services like the Friendship Centre, Prairie Harm Reduction, and Station West are available upon release.

Will you be submitting a video to be vetted prior to council meeting?: No
