Comments:

To members of City Council,

I am writing in full support of the request for the City of Saskatoon to formally adopt a resolution supporting a lasting humanitarian ceasefire in Gaza, which would facilitate a safe return of all innocents who have been held captive. This would align with the calls for ceasefire from numerous international and humanitarian organizations, including Doctors Without Borders, Red Cross and Red Crescent, Oxfam, UNICEF, the World Health Organization, and many more. Not to mention the many innocent civilians, doctors and journalists in Gaza who are posting daily on social media in hopes that the western world will hear their desperate pleas for help.

I have no personal connection with Israel or Palestine, but am simply someone who is seeing the constant horrific footage from Gaza and deeply wish that we who are living comfortably in Canada can do more to help or to voice our support for peace. Sincere thanks to Mayor Charlie Clark who in November has already issued a personal statement in support of a humanitarian ceasefire.

Thank you for your consideration.

Skyler Key (he/they)
