Comments:

Recommend that the Committee vote on Option 1.

Given that the Prairie ecosystem is the most damaged in Canada and that this area of Saskatoon is the last remnant of native prairie and is a place of rare plants and a home for several endangered species, it seems to me to be unconscionable to just continue on with destroying this gem in the name of the internal combustion engine, so that more and more cars can move. Instead of looking to find ways to reduce the use of cars with a decent transportation system, the City of Saskatoon and the Province of Saskatchewan choose to continue to degrade our atmosphere, destroy valuable habitat, and drive nature away. I am ashamed of this province and city.
