These plans would destroy the ecological integrity of the Swales. It would also tell our citizenry what we believe.
Good ecological decisions in a sustainable world ARE good economic decisions.
In light of the recent council decision to enlarge the original boundary the Swales is profound.

In light of the warnings of the worlds top scientists through the United Nations and our local knowledge regarding the need to quickly address the world wide loss of biodiversity, we would be irresponsible to endorse the present plans for the Saskatoon Freeway.
