Hello my name is Hanna and I am not very happy about the Meadow Green recycling depot being dissolved. In fact because recycling isn't every week, not sure why not but anyways and I live on the northwest side, which make meadow green the closest recycling depot, compared to lakeview and Lawson heights, my family has talked about not even recycling anymore, just giving our bin back. We have too much recycling to put it all in the bin and to drive over to the other side of the city every time we need to take down the recycling is out of the question. I am not sure if the mayor or any of the city counsellors use the meadow green recycling depot but my family does and it shouldn't just go to a vote, there should be a survey sent out of other options to the tax payers and the people who actually use the recycling depot. Such as moving the location, having full time security or lowering dump fees so people wouldn't take mattresses there and other things. I know I am just a person and my family just pays taxes and that doesn't mean anything, but instead of building a new library we don't need or planning to move SaskTel center consider something that is making the city greener.
