Comments:

I would like to encourage the Mayor and City Councillors to take bold action on keeping the city's Climate Action Plan front and foremost in the planning of the budget. I long for the city to have safe active paths for not only leisure biking but for those who choose this form or active transportation to do their part in the mitigation of climate change. I want my grandchildren to know that the city they live in is open to change actively involved in the adaptation for the care of the environment. I call for boldness now. Thank you. Melody
