I am writing as a concerned business owner and employer of approximately 100 people in Saskatoon. This proposed tax increase of 7.15% is outrageous and will be directly responsible for small businesses shutting down. I stand with other concerned businesses and residents of the city who believe that this proposed tax hike is not incremental or small in scope....the city has to be better for us and must strive to bring the proposed tax hike down. It is not hyperbolic to suggest that this will be the death knell for some businesses and property owners.
