Subject: 7.1 Saskatoon Police Service - Community Policing to Community Governance [GPC2024-0503]

The Governance and Priorities Committee, at its meeting held on May 15, 2024, considered the above-noted matter and resolved that the report be referred to Administration for a report back within 4 months on progress on the administrative leadership structure currently in development around Community Safety and Well-being. That this report includes an update on the anticipated Community Safety and Well-being Framework and consideration of how the four areas of CSWB planning will be led and coordinated: incident response, risk intervention, prevention, and social development.

The corresponding information can be found with the item here.

Please ensure to include the UIN (unique identifier number) in the footer of the report as noted in the subject line on any responses, if there is any follow-up reporting with respect to this specific matter.

Yours truly,

C. McConnell on behalf of Adam Tittlemore
