Hello:

It is a tough decision that has to be made. However, I feel it is important that the city must invest in its infrastructure, especially in the core areas. Harry Bailey has been sitting vacant too long. I believe that the Council has to support this increase because Harry Bailey serves a large area. Harry Bailey as many of you know serves those who live in the core communities of Riversdale, Caswell, Mayfair, and Hudson Bay not to mention the student body of Saskpoly with programs for seniors to youth and not to mention meeting room space for the local area. If this motion is not passed then the cost will rise and it will continue to be an empty shell and magnet for graffiti and vandalism. Then someone has to decide to tear it down and have another service gone to those who live in the inner city neighborhoods. I am sure nobody wants to. Thank you for your time in this matter.

Will you be submitting a video to be vetted prior to council meeting?: No
