Comments:

As a member of Rise Dance Company located out of second act studios I have serious concern with the new emergency shelter being located across the street. We have a number of young children using this facility on a daily basis. Given that the emergency shelter is not supposed to be located near a school this facility that houses a significant number of children should be considered as the same. This would greatly impact the safety of these children as they come and go from the facility. This emergency shelter should not be located directly across from a dance studio.
