Comments:

Good morning Your Worship Mayor Cynthia Block and Members of City Council.

I joined in the calls for reform for Saskatoon City Council Candidates. Has they really don't have any resources like the Provincial and Federal Candidates do. The ability of corporations and unions to make donations to candidates gives the perception that the vote might be bought and that favours might be done. The fact that candidates can receive donations from entities that aren't citizens hurts the democratic process and creates an unfair advantage for incumbents. They really don't wind up with the same amount of resources as those (incumbent candidates) unless they are heavily financed by a corporation.

Thank you for your consideration

Tyrell Harder
