

Combined Traffic Services Saskatchewan

2024 Annual Report

Overview

2024 Annual Summary (9 SPS members):

Combined Traffic Services Saskatchewan (CTSS) is a multi-agency police partnership between the Royal Canadian Mounted Police (RCMP) and six Saskatchewan municipal police agencies (Saskatoon Police Service, Weyburn Police Service, Estevan Police Service, Prince Albert Police Service, Moose Jaw Police Service, Regina Police Service), involving 120 police officer positions across 17 locations in Saskatchewan. Together, the program aims to reduce the number of fatal and serious traffic collisions that occur on Saskatchewan roadways by raising public awareness and conducting traffic enforcement regarding The Big Four areas of concern outlined on the Canadian Council of Motor Transport Administrators (CCMTA) Canada's Road Safety Strategy:

- 1) Impaired Driving;
- 2) Distracted Driving;
- 3) Seatbelts, and;
- 4) Speeding.
