Dear Valued Member

As the Canadian Association of Police Governance (CAPG), we want to take a moment to express our heartfelt gratitude for your invaluable partnership. As we look ahead to the 2026/2027 membership year, we invite you to continue this vital collaboration by renewing your membership today.

Since our founding in 1989, CAPG has proudly evolved into a strong national voice for civilian governance of policing. We now represent over 80% of municipal police governing bodies, including First Nations police governance authorities. Our mission is clear: to work collaboratively and proactively towards enhancing police governance across Canada, ultimately improving public safety for all citizens.

Your membership with CAPG grants you access to an unparalleled network of knowledge, resources, and support. We are proud to facilitate engaging discussions on pressing issues in policing, and we effectively represent your views to key stakeholders and the federal government.

Here's what you can look forward to in the coming year:

Exclusive Webinars: Join us for a series of informative webinars featuring renowned speakers who will address timely and relevant topics such as:

- Recruitment and Retention Challenges Impacting Policing
- Board Chief Relationships
- Police Culture Change
- Increasing More Women in Policing
- Community Consultation for Boards/Commissions

National Learning Portal: Gain access to a treasure trove of resources designed specifically for members. Our Learning Portal offers hundreds of documents, including, but not limited to:

- Performance management templates for police chiefs
 - Comparable comprehensive policies and procedures manuals
 - Professional and academic research to support your boards, commissions, and advisory boards
- And much more!

New Website Launch: This week, we're also excited to soft launch our New website, designed to enhance your experience and keep you informed about the many benefits available to you as a CAPG member. Over the next few weeks, we will be looking for your input as to what you think works well and what you think we need to still improve before the full launch.

By renewing your membership, you ensure that you remain at the forefront of police governance in Canada—empowered to lead, collaborate, and positively impact community safety.

Join us as we continue to foster an environment of collaborative learning and innovation. Renew your membership today and be a part of the change that matters.

Thank you for your commitment to excellence in police governance. Together, we are making a difference!

Stephen Reid
Chief Executive Officer
Canadian Association of Police Governance

Don't Forget to 'Save the Date' for a stellar lineup of speakers for the CAPG Annual Conference in Edmonton, Alberta on August 12 – 14th , 2026 – we will be opening up registration in February with an early bird discount!

Please note, the CAPG is moving towards an Electronic Funds Transfer (EFT) process for membership renewals. EFT is a secure and fast way to pay membership and event fees. When you receive your membership fee invoice, you can save time and money on preparing cheques by simply processing your payment through EFT – reducing fraud and lost cheques in the mail.
